

Pet Emergency “Go Bag” Basics Checklist

- 2 Leashes, Long Lead Line, & Muzzle
- Two-Week Supply of Pet Food & Water
- Appropriately Sized Crate or Kennel
- Non-Spill Food and Water Bowls
- Medications & Prescriptions
- Poop Bags, Litter Box and Litter
- Disinfectant, Newspaper/Paper Towels
- Familiar Items for Comfort: Toys, Treats, Blanket, Bed
- Recent Photo of Your Pet -Add species, breed, sex, age and color
- Copy Vaccinations/ Microchip Info./ Proof of Ownership/ Vet Info.
- Calming Medicine/ Thunder-shirt/ Large Beach Towel for Swaddling
- Grooming Supplies, Brush, Flea Comb
- Manual Can Opener (if needed)
- Flea, Tick and Heartworm Preventive Products
- Keep your kit up to date and out of reach of children!

According to The A.S.P.C.A. Your Pet Kit Should Contain:

- "1st Aid for Pets" Book
- Absorbent gauze pads
- Adhesive tape
- Cotton balls or swabs
- Fresh 3% hydrogen peroxide to induce vomiting (always check with veterinarian or animal poison control expert prior to administering.)
- Ice pack
- Disposable gloves
- Scissors with blunt end
- Tweezers
- OTC antibiotic ointment
- Oral syringe or turkey baster
- Dawn liquid dishwashing detergent (for bathing)
- Towels and Blankets- Old Beach Towels work Best
- Small flashlight
- Alcohol wipes
- Styptic powder (Stops bleeding when applied to wound.)
- Saline eye solution AND Artificial tears
- Burn ointment
- Phone number, clinic name, address of your veterinarian as well as local veterinary emergency clinics.
- Trash Bags (large and small sizes)

www.NoTownLeftBehind.org